Half a century after our very first show, CES® attracts the most innovative and creative professionals from across the global consumer technology spectrum. Year after year, industry executives from 158 countries, regions and territories come to Las Vegas to learn, meet and be inspired as the future of technology comes alive at CES.

We are thrilled to be a platform for visionaries to grow their business. CES 2017 was another record-breaking year as we celebrated 50 years as the global stage for innovation. We welcomed 184,498 executives to our 2.61 million net square feet of exhibit space, with 4,015 exhibiting companies and more than 7,000 media highlighting ground-breaking and life-changing technologies. And with technology debuts in 5G, vehicle technology, fashion, health care, sports, artificial intelligence and more, CES was proud to feature tech from all facets of the industry.

CES is the only consumer technology show that follows strict requirements for auditing set by UFI, the global association of the exhibition industry. The CES 2017 Attendance Audit Summary contains independently-verified information on attendee demographics, ensuring you have accurate data to reach and evaluate your business objectives at CES.
